New Downtown Suffolk Eatery Showcases Local Seafood Flavors

SUFFOLK, Virginia (September 29, 2020) – High Tide Restaurant & Raw Bar is the newest option in the growing Downtown Suffolk dining corridor. Co-owners Karen and Katy Tew partnered with the Suffolk Economic Development Authority's Downtown Business Development Program, which assists retailers with new and expansion projects. They are located at 130 North Commerce Street, just behind Main Street, in the Historic Downtown area. Diners will find a casual, roomy interior with options for outside seating as well. The lunch and dinner menu, as the name suggests, is focused on bringing fresh local seafood to the table, along with rotating drink specials and live music on weekends. Customers can select from raw oysters, steamed shrimp, fish tacos, burgers, Captain's platters, and more.

They are open from 11 am to 2 am, every day. COVID-19 protocols are in place for all staff and guests. Dine in, carry-out, curbside, and delivery are available, click here for information.
